MAYSVILLE, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1916.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

A GOOD MODEL.

The tombstone's way we'd recommend
To each who'd truly be your friend.

A tombstone you will rarely find Which says of one a thing unkind.

In storm and sunshine just the same,
Unwavering it holds up one's name.

Yes, though the world above may frown,
It sticks up for one when he's down.

HERE'S THE ANSWER.

Mr. Hermann Calvert of West Third street was the only one to send in a correct answer to the following enigma which appeared in Monday's paper, having been contributed by a subscriber:

1. I am composed of eighteen letters.
2. My 1-6-4 is a girl's name.
3. My 16-4-2 is something costing lots of money.

4. My 18-11-2 is a positive answer.
5. My 17-8-7-4-9 is a thing young people do not want.

6. My 10-15-14-13 is a musical instrument.

7. My 8-12-5 is a clinging vine.
My whole is a question.
The correct answer:

1. Isa.
2. Dam.
3. Yes.
4. Rival.
5. Lyre.
6. Ivy.

RATTERMAN-SLATTERY.

Thursday morning at 9 o'clock at St. George's Catholic church at Cincinnati, Miss Maria Ratterman of Cincinnati, and Hon. Thomas D. Slattery of this city, were united in marriage.
The bride is one of Cincinnati's most brilliant and fairest daughters, while the groom is recognized as one of the leading members of the Kentucky bar.
Many friends and relatives of this city attended the wedding.

Mr. E. R. Dodson of Augusta, was a business visitor in this city Thursday.

ADDITIONAL HONOR ROLL.

The following names were omitted by oversight from the honor roll printed in Tuesday's paper. We desire, especially, to call attention to them, as any one doing honor roll work certainly deserves having their name mentioned:

MRS. CHARLES WALKER PASSES AWAY AT HER MURPHY- VILLE HOME.

Mrs. Charles Walker died at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning at her home in Murphysville from dropsy at the age of 59, having been born October 5, 1857. She was born near Murphysville. She is survived by her husband, Mr. Charles Walker; one sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Stevenson, and one brother, Mr. Pat McCartney.

Funeral services at Shannon at 11 o'clock Friday morning, conducted by Rev. Maurice Walker. Interment in the Shannon cemetery.

The Louisville Times' cartoonist had a picture in Monday's paper labeled "Rep. H. P. Purnell, Mason county." If Harry will catch that cartoonist and give him what he deserves for making such a picture he will look like something the cat came dragging in.

Mr. Robert Adair, Miss Mae Liston and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rees are in Cincinnati where they attended the Ratterman-Slattery nuptials.

SOME ADVERTISEMENT

How the Big Concerns Believe "Advertising Pays" In The Public Ledger

In this issue of The Public Ledger you will find a double-page advertisement of Tuxedo tobacco to which we invite the attention of all interested.

This is the largest single advertisement that has ever appeared in The Ledger and we feel that it is a com-piment to ourselves when the out-town advertisers recognize the merit of our columns as an advertising medium.

"Big trees from little acorns grow," and thus it is with those who believe in advertising. The Tuxedo people believe in advertising their product—Tuxedo tobacco—and bring it before the eyes of those who use tobacco.
This concern is today enjoying the largest business in its history and advertising did it.

Here is a moral that should apply to every business—local as well as otherwise. If you want to grow ADVER-TISE—A-D-V-E-R-T-I-S-E—and keep on advertising.

What made Uncead Biscuit? Advertising.

What made Cantoria? Advertising.
What made the Waterman pen?
Advertising.

What made a hundred other well known products of manufacture? Advertising.

But advertising is not all. The advertiser must have the quality behind the article advertised. And give the people what they pay for—good goods with merit to them.

Any merchant can do this and make a success if he will but try. Start with advertising in The Daily Public Ledger now.

We thank the American Tobacco Company for this business and commend their product to all as being a worthy article with merit to it. Try Tuxedo tobacco and you'll be delighted with its flavor.

Miss Lida Duke Woods has returned to Danville after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James M.
Woods of Forest avenue.

Mr. Robert Prather of Detroit, Mich., is visiting relatives in this city.

Captain Con Phister is spending several days in Cincinnati.

THE GROWERS WAREHOUSE.

The Growers warehouse at the corner of Poplar and Front streets is as well known as any tobacco house in the White Burley section. Its management has always sought to treat both the farmer and buyer with courtesy and kindness. It brings them together upon a common ground and the farmer feels that his interests are the interests of the warehouse; the buyer feels the crops are just as they are represented and when he buys he gets the goods he expects. The farmer and buyer are here placed on a platform of good will and each appreciates the position of the other, as a glance at its sales records for this season will show. This year's management is one of the best of its history.

MANY ATTEND FUNERAL.

The funeral of Mrs. Margaret Childs who died at her home on the Mayville and Mt. Sterling pike Monday morning, was held from the late residence on Wednesday afternoon, Rev. John Barbour of the First Presbyterian church, being in charge. Interment in the Mayville cemetery. A large number of friends and relatives were in attendance.

THE HOME OF QUALITY CLOTHES

Overcoat Weather

is still in strong evidence. We continue selling them at 25% to 60% less than they will be bought for next season. The style of them is the same as next season's. You will pat yourself for having bought one this season when you see the price they will sell for next fall and winter.

The same holds good in Mackinaws, Raincoats and Suits.

Our stock of Rubber Coats, Shoes and Arctics is yet in good shape. We can fit you in any of them.

Embrace the opportunity and supply your wants.

COMING—AN IMPORTANT EVENT

Hunt's Linen Sale February 3rd

In spite of war prices. In spite of scarcity of goods. In spite of almost insurmountable obstacles, next Thursday we will present a stock of linens that will challenge comparison in quality, quantity and prices with any store in a town three times the size of Maysville.

And a fact of greatest importance is that positively no advance in prices has been made. In yardage linen and in separate pieces of linen, "before-the-war" prices have been maintained.

Low Prices on All Mussed Underwear

From use in ledge and window display, we have some nightgowns, princess slips, corset cover and drawer combinations that need a trip to the laundry, so we have repriced them very low.

$1.50 Mull or Lawn Slips, lavender or blue, now 75c. Not many.
Nightgowns handsomely trimmed reduced as follows: $1.25 gowns $1.00, $1.50 gowns $1.25, $3 gowns $1.50.
Corset Cover-and-Drawer Combinations trimmed in lace or embroidery: $3 Combinations $1.00, $1.25 Combinations 75c.

Ready-to-Wear Bargains

This season's garments. $25 Suits for $12½ and $20 Suits for $10. Not many for bargains like these sell fast.
A few silk and velvet and all-silk dresses reduced as follows: One $22½ dress for $11.25. One $19.50 dress for $9.75. Two $17.50 dresses $8.75. Three $15 dresses $7.50.

About a dozen plush coats. They are all the finest quality Salt's plush—the soft, lustrous texture that looks like fur. They are now priced $10 to $19½ which represents a saving of 33½ to 50%.

Smart wool coats in black and colors. $7½, $8½ and $9½ for $10 to $15 Coats.

GARMENTS NOT THIS SEASON'S.

Black suits of high grade material with coats lined throughout with best quality Skinner's satin, $5. A few colored suits for $3.98.
Coats up to $25 for $5. Fine all-wool coatings skillfully tailored.
Separate skirts of strictly all-wool fabrics for $1½, original prices $6 to $9.

HOBBIES

A prominent physician tells us that "hobbies" are healthy things for us to have, and we feel that we must be blessed with unusually good health, as we have ALWAYS had a hobby—and it's

HARNESS!

Years ago, when leather sold for nineteen cents a pound, our boast was that we made the best harness that could be made of good leather, good thread and good workmanship.
Now, when that same kind of leather is selling for forty-nine and fifty cents a pound, we still maintain that we have the best harness that can be made. All you have to do to prove that we are telling you facts is to go to the next "sale," and hear Col. Hensley Hawkins say in that musical drawl for which he is so famous, "This is a set, gentlemen, of Mike Brown's Harness. What do you bid?" Then's when you can see the farmer "set up and take notice," for he knows there will be some bidding on that harness.

This is the time of the year, when Harness is foremost in every farmer's mind, and this is the time of the year, also, when we are ready to sell him. All winter long our men have been making up harness for Spring trade, and now we are ready. Of course, it's higher than when our grandfathers used to buy it, but, considering the price of leather, it's a wonder how low in price and high in quality the Square Deal harness is.

Come in, gentlemen, we are ready to rig up those horses.

TAFFY PULLING.

An old-fashioned taffy-pulling will be enjoyed by those who attend the social at the Christian church tonight from 7 to 9. The good social times that have been recently had at the socials given in this church by the various organizations bespeaks another enjoyable time tonight. This social, though given by the Endeavorers, is for the whole church and all the friends of the church. Every one will be made to feel welcome. The meeting will be in the junior department's room, but the taffy pulling will be in the church basement, which is an ideal place. Let all who come enter the side door.

REV. GEORGE H. HARRIS' MOTHER DEAD.

Rev. George H. Harris, rector of St.
Peter's Episcopal church at Paris, and for several years rector of the Church of the Nativity in this city, received a telegram Monday announcing the death of his mother, Mrs. Anne J. Harris, which occurred in Birmingham, Mich. Mrs. Harris is survived by three sons, Rev. George H. Harris of Paris, Ky.; Mr. Charles Harris of Sacramento, Cal., and Mr. Fred Harris of Birmingham, Mich. Rev. Harris left for Birmingham to attend the funeral and during his absence his pulpit at St. Peter's Episcopal church at Paris will be filled by Bishop Burton of Lexington.

MASKED DANCE IN NEAR FUTURE.

Some time during the latter part of this month the Maysville Assembly Dancing Club will give their annual masked ball. This affair is looked forward to with great pleasure by the younger set of the city. The committee in charge of the evening is preparing many surprises and a large crowd is already promised. A noted orchestra has been secured and a professional costumer will be obtained.

Newport, Ark., the city to which Rev.
R. L. Benn of this city, was called to a pastorate, was almost depopulated last Tuesday. The paper said over 5,000 of its inhabitants left on the trains just before the White river flooded the city. Water is from ten to fourteen feet deep in the houses in the city.
Rev. Benn, however, knows what a flood means, having been here in the 1913 disaster.

The river continues to rise at this point, having reached a stage of 40.8 at 8 o'clock Thursday morning. From indication about all the big water is here.
